

Thank you for your expression of interest in obtaining appointment as a Visiting Allied Health Specialist at Greenslopes Private Hospital (GPH). Please download the "Application for Visiting Allied Health Practitioner Accreditation at GPH" form and a copy of the Hospital By-Laws. The application should be returned to me and it will be considered initially by the Credentials and Clinical Privileges Committee and then by the Medical Advisory Committee. Ratification of all Appointments at GPH is by the Ramsay Health Care Board of Directors

Owned and operated by Ramsay Health Care, Greenslopes Private Hospital is one of Australia's largest private hospitals and a teaching hospital with the University of Queensland. Fully accredited by the Australian Council on Healthcare Standards, the hospital has 570 beds and is supported by a 24 hour emergency centre, onsite pathology and radiology services

All visiting practitioners appointed to GPH will be expected to agree to the conditions of Appointment, which are to:

- a) comply with the provisions of relevant Acts;
- b) comply with the By-Laws and Rules and Policies and Procedures of the hospital;
- c) attend to their patients in a professional, timely, and ethical manner and subject to the limits of any conditions imposed after taking into account where applicable, the recommendations of the Credentials and Clinical Privileges Committee.
- d) take all reasonable steps to ensure an adequate hospital clinical record is maintained for all patients under their care;
- e) observe all reasonable requests by the hospital in regard to his/her their conduct in the hospital and with regard to the provision of services within the hospital including participation in after hours rosters;
- f) participate in relevant hospital quality improvement activities;
- g) maintain professional indemnity insurance at the appropriate level;
- h) maintain current registration with the relevant Board of Queensland;

Please do not hesitate to contact Judy Beazley, Assistant Director of Clinical Support Services, on (07) 3394 7226 should you have any queries. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

ROBIN COPELAND
